ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), the Government moved for detention in this case. Defendant waived his right to a detention hearing. That waiver is entered in the record as Dkt. No. 20. I conclude that the following facts are established by a preponderance of the evidence and require the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case.

- [ ] (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction) (release of the defendant from imprisonment) for the offense described in finding 1.
- [ ] (4) Findings Nos. 1, 2, and 3 establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of any other person and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.

Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the indictment and the pretrial services report establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant is a 66 year old citizen of Pakistan. His immigration status has been changed from Legal Resident Alien to Inadmissible Alien and the Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement has issued a detainer against him. He reports self-employment managing rental properties. His wife and daughters as well as his mother reside in Pakistan. He has lived for several years in College Station, Texas. He was arrested upon reentering the United States after a two-month stay in Pakistan.
2. Defendant is presently accused of social security fraud in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 408(a)(7)(A), loan fraud in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1014, bank fraud in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1344, and immigration fraud in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1546(a). He faces penalties ranging from up to 5 years for social security fraud and up to 30 years for loan and bank fraud.
3. Defendant's criminal history in the United States consists of a misdemeanor conviction for selling alcohol to minors. Defendant has used a false name and the current offense involves fraud.
4. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
